

WORKSHOP

On Industrial Organization TOI

December 16 - 17, 2008. Concón - Chile

Objectives

We invite you to participate in the first Workshop on Industrial Organization (TOI, in spanish), to be held in Concón, Chile. The intimate workshop aims to explore focused topics on Industrial Organization. The two days conference will consist of over 6 invited experts in IO and related fields.

The objective of TOI is to encourage discussion and interaction between foreign and chilean researchers about those topics.

We hope that this workshop will be the first in a long series of workshops in IO and related subjects.

CONCON

Hotel

The workshop will be held in the Radisson Agua Hotel located in Concón, one of the most traditional beaches in Chile.

Beautiful landscapes, dunes, extensive variety of restaurants, have consecrated to Concón like one of the favorite areas for holiday in Chile. Famous are Playa Negra, Playa Amarilla y Playa La Boca, ideal beaches. Concón is called gastronomical capital of Chile because it has many prestigious sea food restaurants.

Moreover Viña del Mar and Valparaíso city are placed really near from Concón, just minutes away. Valparaíso is protected as a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is often considered to be one of Latin America's most intriguing urban areas.

The most prestigious Chilean vineyards are in the region as well as a variety nature sights.
